12/Sony PSVITA

So you can't wait for the PS4 and need a fix now? The PSVITA is the latest gadget to come off the conveyor belt of Sony. Slightly lighter on the battery and on the thumbs, this is a Christmas cracker all the kids want.

13/Biem Fall/Winter Collection

Biem's latest collection takes inspiration from the style and glamour of cinema's golden age. This is not for the retiring personality. The focus is on vibrant colours and bold chequered prints to relive the cinematic grandeur of the 60s and 70s.

14/Nikon D600

The least expensive DSLR from Nikon is here with 24MP and 1080HD video at 30fps. It's basically saying that now you too can have your best shot at trying to be a photographer or videographer of some degree.

15/Samsung Galaxy SIII Mini

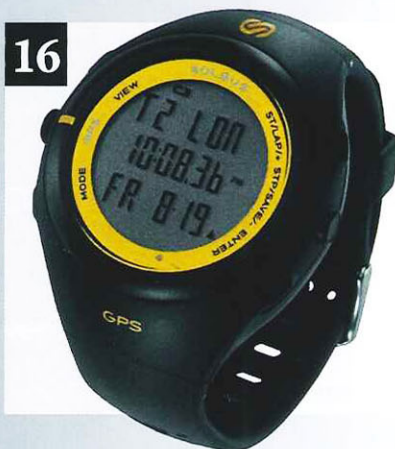

No one has said much about Samsung's new SIII Mini, which can only be a good thing. Similar in size to the iPhone 5, it has comparable hardware as well. This could be a sleeper hit for the Koreans.

16/Soleus GPS 3.0 Watch

For the fitness junkie who prefers to train outside the gym this could just be the perfect watch. The Soleus GPS 3.0 uses GPS technology to measure distance, speed and pace. It can even monitor your heart rate.
