MALAYSIAN INVASION SEASON TWO

More prepared and more ruthless. These words fit perfectly to the mixed martial arts (MMA) hopefuls who turned up for the Malaysian

Invasion Mixed Martial Arts (MIMMA) tryouts, which spanned across seven states in seven weeks. From down South to up North, covering the peninsular and East Malaysia, MIMMA have invaded every major city in search of the next big name in Malaysian MMA. With close to 1000 participants (the number has tripled from the previous season), it can be said that MIMMA is the go-to platform for amateur MMA fighters to show their talents. The committee is working hard to tabulate scores and pick the top fighters but hey, greater things are yet to come. As MIMMA advances to higher stages, expect to see the rise of fighters, battling it out in the cage. We bet you wouldn't wanna miss out on the action!

NEW KID ON THE BLOCK

Jordone Corporation launched the Jeep Spirit Apparel in Malaysia at a star-studded event, which was held at the Ciao Restaurant just recently. The exclusive event was witnessed and attended by the senior management team of the company, fashion buyers and famous celebrities like Jehan Misikin, Carmen Soo as well as Vince Chong. Created specially for individuals who desire to experience the beauty of going natural, Jeep Spirit incorporate earthy colours, tones, and textures where each design is crafted with pride and authenticity. The latest collection is now available at all Outfitters Studios and leading department stores in Malaysia.
